LAND SALE.

L. J. Jackson et al.
VS

Haskell Pippin.
In the County Court of Jackson County, Tennessee.

In obedience to a decree, rendered by the County Court, at Gainesboro, Tennessee, at the October term, 1922, in the above styled case, I will, on Saturday the 18th day of November, 1922, at the east door of the courthouse in Gainesboro, sell one tract of land described in the pleadings as the farm owned by E. L. Jackson, deceased, in his lifetime. A full description of said lands will be given on day of sale.

Said land lies in the 12th civil district of Jackson County, and is bounded north by the lands of Henry and Doug Platt; south by James Platt; east by John Chaffin; and west by George and Doug Platt, containing 160 acres more or less.

Said land will be sold for one-third cash on day of sale, balance on a credit of one and two years. Notes with good personal security will be required of the purchaser, and a lien retained on the land sold as further security.

This October 12, 1922.

G. Lee McGlasson, Clerk.

Bryant & Gore, for Comptroller.

Everybody is enjoying the best of health at present.

Eston Spivey has moved to 168 Wooster Hve., and also Cleo Moss.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moss took dinner with N. M. Moss Sunday. Guy Rogers and Joe Murphy took supper with Eston Spivey, Sunday.

Jake, Guy and Frank Rogers and Joe Murphy motored to Nomans land chestnut hunting Saturday afternoon.

We are having lots of rain here now, but no mud to be bothered with.

The factories will close Thursday for the opening of the world's largest viaduct.

N. M. Moss and wife visited Lawren Duckworth Wednesday night.

Frank and Guy Rogers visited Joe Murphy Wednesday night. I'll ring off for this time.

Joe Murphy.
